Cancellations of MT20N received before the cut-off time

Danske Bank offers same day cancellation of MT20N, provided that correctly formatted MT292 are received by Danske Bank before 08.00 CET on the value date.

Other amendments and cancellations

Any request for (i) amendments to a MT20N or MT103 payment instruction, (ii) cancellations of a MT20N payment instruction received by Danske Bank after 08.00 CET, (iii) cancellations of a MT103 payment instruction or (iv) a cancellation of a payment made due to a MT20N or MT103 shall be provided to Danske Bank via MT195, MT295, MT192, MT292, MT199 or MT299 respectively. As a payment instruction and a payment is irrevocable and final, Danske Bank has no responsibility or liability in relation to such requests.

Requests for cancellation of MT103 in a foreign currency where the amount has been converted by Danske Bank are returned in the currency received. Conversion is made at the rate determined by Danske Bank on the day of return of the payment.

Investigation Fees

Danske Bank sends out amendment or cancellation confirmations upon request and against a fee.

All investigations are subject to an investigation fee charged by Danske Bank. Additional fees may apply for very time-consuming investigations.

All investigation fees are charged up-front or advised via MT190 or MT191 and fees may be deducted from the returned amount.

Cheque handling

A cheque is considered final seven days after receipt with exceptions only in case of forgery and fraudulent endorsement. If the cheque proves to be forged or fraudulent at a later date, Danske Bank reserves the right to withdraw funds from the remitting bank's account without time limitations.

No volume restrictions applies.

Danske Bank requires a MT110 for each cheque issued.

Cheques presented through the retail branch network are debited the remitting bank's account value same day.

Formatting

The preferred cheque format is 20 - 22 cm wide and 8 - 10 cm high and with the remitting bank's account number (ten digits) printed on the front. Danske Bank accepts cheques assigned with own cheque numbers. Control digits are not used and pre-encoded lines are not necessary.

Stop payment

Danske Bank requires a MT111 before 12.00 CET and will confirm action taken by MT112. A stop payment is valid for one year.
